

I think this is very unnecessary. As you already know, radio has tried to do this to TV in the past, and AM radio tried it against FM radio. This country is a democracy and supports competition between business, not government limitations of them. Last I checked, that was closer to communism than our more capitolist nation. God Bless America.